ADEL COURT

an Oakland Housing Authority Public Housing Development for Seniors is accepting applications for 1 and 2-bedroom units.

Adel Court Public Housing Development is comprised of one 3-story building with 30 units. The property has many amenities including a community room with a fully equipped kitchen, elevator, easy access to public transportation, and social activities for residents.

We are able to offer affordable rents because Adel Court Public Housing Development is funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). HUD and Oakland Housing Authority require that all applicants must be carefully screened to qualify based on annual income (including income from assets), household size, credit, and rental history.

Eligibility for an affordable unit is determined by HUD and OHA guidelines for resident selection. Your income and asset information will be verified through third parties to determine the household's combined annual income in accordance with HUD Public Housing Program requirements. The eligibility guidelines require that the head of household be 62 years or older.
