

INTERIM CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Kris Warren

1619 Harrison Street
Oakland, CA 94612
(510) 874-1526

Kris Warren joined the Oakland Housing Authority (OHA) in October 2020, and is currently serving as Interim Chief Operating Officer, after an initial role providing consultative services for OHA's Central Office.

Ms. Warren's vast knowledge comes from over 25 years of affordable housing experience. As Senior Vice President of CVR Associates, she has assisted HUD and housing authority clients in a variety of operational areas, including resident relocation, asset repositioning and neighborhood revitalization. Prior to joining CVR, she worked as a Professional Staff Member on the U.S. Senate Housing and Urban Affairs Subcommittee, where she focused on affordable and public housing. In addition, Ms. Warren was a political appointee at the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) in the office of the Assistant Secretary for Public and Indian Housing, where she focused on assessments of troubled housing authorities and related recovery plans.

Ms. Warren's previous positions include Deputy Executive Director for the Tampa Housing Authority, CEO for Miami-Dade Housing Agency, and COO for the Chicago Housing Authority, one of the largest Moving to Work (MTW) agencies in the country.

Ms. Warren earned her bachelor's degree from the University of the Pacific and her MBA from the University of South Florida.

Oakland Housing Authority