

Contact:
Bronwyn Hogan, senior communications manager
(510) 874-1511

Second Phase of One of Oakland's Largest Affordable Housing Development Set to Open

*Oakland Housing Authority,
The Related Companies, East Bay Asian Local Development Corporation
Host Grand Opening of Lion Creek Crossings Phase II,
to Welcome 146 Low-Income Oakland Families*

- What: Grand opening celebration of Lion Creek Crossings Phase II, a mixed-income, mixed-use, transit oriented neighborhood, offering 434 units of affordable housing for 146 low-income Oakland families. Several apartments will be open for viewing.
- When: Wednesday, December 12, 2007
Noon to 1:30 p.m.
- Where: 881 69th Ave, Oakland, Calif.
- Who: Senate President pro Tem Don Perata
Richard Rainey, Regional Director, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development
Office of Congresswoman Barbara Lee
Ron Dellums, Mayor of the City of Oakland (invited)
Members of the Oakland City Council
Members of the Oakland Housing Authority Board of Commissioners
Representatives from the Oakland Housing Authority, The Related Companies of California, and East Bay Asian Local Development Corp.
- Why: Lion Creek Crossings is the result of a partnership between the Oakland Housing Authority and private developers. The multi-phase, mixed-financed, mixed-income, mixed-use development is partially funded with the Coliseum Gardens HOPE VI grant. The Lion Creek Crossings project is a HOPE VI model of providing public housing within mixed-financed developments and offers a viable option for meeting the housing needs of low-income families.

###